Dear John

I have just got out of bed. After an unwilling residence here of 4 weeks, during which time I might as well ~~be~~ ~~I might as well~~ have been out of the world. If you come to S.D. come over & see me, for I will not be able to go out for a week more. My love to all the family, with the greeting of a happy New Year. I am

Yours very truly

J. M. Gibbons

I have lost so much flesh that my hand is somewhat shaky, but perhaps things will now grow better.
